Flexible entertaining options are abundant with well-considered open plan family spaces flowing to a lifestyle alfresco at the rear and a central courtyard. Welcoming light floods the home with effortless connections between interior and exterior living areas. The ground floor comprises a large gourmet kitchen that continues through to the open butler's pantry with the dining and family room creating an enjoyable entertaining space. Relax with a central lounge that overlooks the light filled courtyard. An oversized double garage and study nook are welcome additions to this home.
