This mid-century unit is a classic gem, very rarely do you see homes like this hit the market. It boasts house-like proportions, an established garden setting and an enviable Preston location that's very tightly held. The airy interior comprises of two spacious bedrooms (both with built in robes) a neat bathroom and laundry and an open plan lounge/dining area complemented by an immaculate kitchen with lots of storage and functional appliances. Added highlights also include split system heating cooling, plush carpets, a remote single garage and a wonderful courtyard garden. Brilliantly positioned within close distance to public transport, parklands, the Preston Market, schools and local eateries.
