When it comes to convenience, few can compete with this fantastic single level home tucked right in the heart of Diamond Creek. Literally a matter of metres from the shops, train station, cafes and eateries, this property promises absolute ease of living where you can forget about driving and walk to everything you need. You'll love the interior filled with natural light and the easy-care courtyard garden. Everything you need is here! This light and inviting home enjoys a practical single level design that catches beautiful natural light from room to room. The inviting meals/living zone is a great size, accompanied by the open plan kitchen that looks out over a private courtyard garden. Each of the 2 bedrooms has built-in robes, while a neat central bathroom and full-sized laundry complete the floor plan. The courtyard features a blend of practical paving to keep maintenance demands to a minimum, and pretty garden borders that add a lovely leafy effect. With split system heating/cooling, cream carpet, fresh neutral decor and easy indoor/outdoor connection - inspection is certain to impress.
