At the front of just two on the block, this beautifully presented single-level home delivers family-sized accommodation in highly desirable low maintenance surroundings. In a quiet low-traffic pocket just moments to Southland, the 3-bedroom clinker brick residence opens to interiors enhanced by glossy hardwood floors and light-filled, open plan spaces. Among its many standout features are a welcoming lounge/dining room, a smartly appointed gourmet kitchen with stainless steel appliances and lots of cupboard space plus a bright, central bathroom. A second WC can be found off the full laundry, while also offered are robes in all three bedrooms, ducted heating, split system plus a sundrenched easy-to-maintain rear courtyard with access to the double garage. There is also a fenced and extremely generous front garden which basks in glorious northerly sunshine. Within a stroll of both Highett Reserve (Waves Leisure Centre) and the Sir William Fry Reserve, this wonderfully central address enjoys easy access to Nepean Highway for a stress-free commute; it is also close to an incredible array of essential amenities – including the zoned Cheltenham Secondary College and public transport – for the very best in daily convenience.
