Nestled in a quiet court locale is this fantastic townhouse with magnificent million-dollar views sweeping across the city skyline. Downstairs is a great open plan kitchen, meals and living area opening onto your private timber deck, ideal for entertaining while you watch the sun set. The kitchen features a 900mm stainless steel oven, dishwasher, and island bench. The large master bedroom with full ensuite and plenty of wardrobe space. The remaining two bedrooms are of generous size with built-in-robos. The home is not short on storage and offers lots of options throughout. Other features include a huge double garage with remote access and rumpus room or alternatively, a 4th bedroom, gas central heating and split system cooling. With quality, class and sophistication in mind this would make an ideal purchase for an owner occupier or investor alike. Located close to schools, shops, and public transport and en-route to the University of Ballarat, this is an ideal home not to be missed. Arrange your private inspection today
