You will be delighted with the attention to detail, cleanliness, location and value of this property. There are polished floors throughout the living areas and beautiful soft furnishings. From the cozy front sun room you enter the air conditioned lounge room and wander into the eat in kitchen or the beautifully designed bathroom including a toilet. There is a second toilet located on the landing for those times you have too many visitors. Bedroom one features a bay window and split system air conditioner so you can enjoy your own sanctuary. Bedroom two has two very large built in wardrobes for extra storage options. Both bedrooms lead out onto a very large "sleep-out" or family room. Downstairs there is a large laundry and storage area for extra storage options. There is paved entertainment area and a fully fenced yard. Located close to public transport (buses and trains), schools and TAFE with easy access to the motorway.
