This is your opportunity to own a home where everything is just right. Welcome to this delightful sun-filled apartment that takes full advantage of its northerly aspect. With easy access across the ground level, you'll feel at home in this thoughtfully renovated two-bedroom apartment. Step inside and the large living area opens to a generously sized, low maintenance courtyard that is hard to compare. The kitchen is complete with brand-new appliances, while the modern bathroom with walk-in shower also serves as an ensuite to the large main bedroom. The second bedroom has its own private courtyard. Other features include a european style laundry, separate second toilet in addition to the main bathroom, built-in robes in both bedrooms, and a separate garage with electric roller door. Best of all, it's all so close - you can take a short walk to a number of eateries, a leisurely stroll around the lake, or a short drive to the greater shopping precinct including South Point. With nature and convenience at your doorstep, this apartment offers many possibilities, be it looking for your first home, simplifying life by downsizing, or thinking about investing. With the option to purchase this beautifully presented apartment as you see it, fully furnished, you can move in and start enjoying it right away, or you can make it your own with a personal touch.
