Get ready for a sleek modern lifestyle in this fully renovated ground floor apartment that creates an instant impact with its crisp interiors, excellent natural light and highly accessible position. This is an ideal choice for home buyers or investors seeking a quality property that's private, secure and set in a well-maintained brick complex in one of Dulwich Hill's best streets. The location enjoys every convenience and is walking distance to the local café scene, as well as the light rail, neighbourhood parks and bus transport to the city. A separate home office space set at the rear of the garage. A well-planned layout with a generous single-level design. Bright open plan living area featuring fresh timber flooring. Freestanding to the north side providing great natural light. Both bedrooms are well-sized, the main has a large built-in contemporary kitchen including quality fittings and finishes. Well-lit modern bathroom, internal laundry, lock-up garage.
