This stylish modern two-bedroom townhouse offers a life of leisure and convenience with Karingals shopping Centre and Restaurants located just a few minutes away. Situated at the front of a small boutique development, this 6-year-old home (approx.) delivers the best of both worlds with style and the modern must-have comforts expected of today. Inside, there is an abundance of natural light filtering through the open plan kitchen/meals/lounge area that opens out to the rear courtyard with a woodfire pizza oven, perfect for summer entertaining. In addition to the downstairs living, there is a separate laundry and separate powder room. Upstairs, there is a second living area with R/C air conditioning, two good sized bedrooms both with built-in-robies and central bathroom. Additional features include ducted heating and ducted vacuum throughout, a single carport, and two handy outdoor sheds. Whether you are starting out or establishing an investment portfolio, this is a brilliant opportunity to secure your future.
