If you've long desired to live the stylish townhouse lifestyle in a wonderful location not far from renowned schools, Gardiners Creek Trail, and Deakin University, than this 3 bedroom, 3 bathroom ultra-contemporary residence needs to be high on your property short list. Polished hardwood flooring will catch the eye throughout the large and free-flowing living and dining zone which showcases natural light from the north. This living zone also offers sliding door access out to the dream entertainer's deck which is also enhanced by the northern orientation. The smart and dazzling gives you excellent views of the living area along with stone benchtops, soft-close drawers, built-in wine storage, and stainless steel appliances including a 900mm oven and cooktop. Downstairs features a flexible bedroom which has the option to become a home office. The master bedroom is placed on the top floor and comes with built-in robe storage and a pristine ensuite with striking floor-to-ceiling tiling, with the 2nd bedroom with BIR sitting right next to the main bathroom also delivering designer touches. This property further promises a full laundry, reverse cycle heating and cooling, front garden, shed, single carport, and single garage. So close to Mount Scopus Memorial College, Presbyterian Ladies College, Kingswood College, Ashwood High School, Roberts McCubbin Primary School, Gardiners Creek Reserve, Eley Road Reserve Playground, Burwood Village, Burwood Brickworks, Burwood Heights Shopping Centre, buses, and trams to the city.
