Situated in this highly sought-after building containing only 12 units, we are pleased to offer Unit 1 on the ground floor of this boutique development. This well-proportioned 3 bedroom residence presents in outstanding condition and has been extremely well maintained by its current owners. With beautiful interior spaces, an abundance of exclusive use outdoor gardens and a private courtyard this accommodation would suit a young couple or anyone looking to downsize. There are 3 bedrooms with the master offering ensuite facilities, a well-appointed modern kitchen, open plan living/dining and a family bathroom. The large covered alfresco patio captures stunning ocean views and the green vistas out to Buderim. Situated on the north-east corner, this home delivers areas for comfortable entertaining throughout the seasons. The large double garage, with mezzanine storage and additional workspace provides ample parking for your vehicles. The low body corporate and private gated development make this Buderim property one not to miss. For more information or to book a private inspection please contact Richard or Loren before you miss out.
