Introducing a spotless two bedroom, one bathroom unit in a beautifully presented complex. This is comfortable living in a convenient location with views to the mountains. The open concept living and dining is ideal for entertaining. With ample natural light, this east facing home is sunny and warm. Internal and external blinds compliment the property, as do the built in robes for easy storage. Situated in a very safe and desirable neighbourhood, it is only a fifty meter stroll to the bus stop. A reverse cycle heat pump, new carpets, an upright oven and a garden shed complete this home that will appeal to first home buyers or those looking to down-size. Don't miss this opportunity to make this lovely home your own. Belle Property have obtained all information in this document from sources considered to be reliable.
