This picturesque double storey residence is a tranquil sanctuary, nestled on a block of only two with no body corporate fees. It effortlessly combines well-considered living spaces with contemporary excellence, creating a beautiful home. Behind the timeless façade and among well-manicured leafy gardens enclosed by private fencing, stepping into this immaculate home flooded with natural light feels like love at first sight. Hardwood timber floors guide you through the inviting living domain, seamlessly connecting a serene lounge to the kitchen, dining, and living zone. This extends effortlessly onto an oversized deck for outdoor entertaining. The generous kitchen boasts ample storage space, stainless-steel oven, gas cooktop, and dishwasher. A butler's pantry with laundry facilities adds extra convenience. Upstairs, three robed bedrooms await, including a spacious master with a walk-in robe and ensuite featuring a timber vanity. A family-sized bathroom services the remaining bedrooms, complete with a bath, shower, and separate WC. Other highlights include a ground-floor bathroom, zoned ducted heating, reverse cycle split-systems, a garden shed, rainwater tank connected to grey water, and a double auto garage with internal access. Ideally positioned just a short stroll from local shops, cafes, and restaurants, with Ringwood East Train Station, Ringwood East Village, Burnt Bridge Shopping Centre, Melba College, Eastwood Primary School, Eastland, and EastLink only moments away.
