Discover your perfect next home or investment in this charming and meticulously maintained property with timeless appeal, poised on its own title catering to discerning downsizers, first-time buyers, and investors alike. With a thoughtful design including additional ceiling height throughout and quality craftsmanship, this residence offers two generously sized bedrooms, each with its own bathroom and one with its own private courtyard, ideal for accommodating guests, family members seeking privacy, or friends sharing space. Bathed in natural light from its northern orientation, the open-plan kitchen, meals, and living area provide ample space for versatile living. The well-appointed and spacious kitchen features ample bench space, cupboards and a pantry for added convenience. A discreetly positioned laundry with abundant storage, accessible through double sliding doors ensures practicality without compromising on style. Complete with split system heating and cooling, ceiling fans, security doors, and an alarm system, this home offers peace of mind alongside comfort. Nestled at the forefront of just two homes on-site, it boasts a charming front aspect adorned with lovingly established gardens and strategically placed shrubs for year-round privacy and tranquility. Overlooking the picturesque Weeramar Park and conveniently located near Stockland Wendouree and Wendouree Train Station, this residence offers unparalleled convenience. Leave the car behind and stroll to all amenities from this prime location. With front parking for easy access and a fully secure, low-maintenance north-facing courtyard with a storage shed, this property epitomizes hassle-free living. Boasting an impressive rental history, it represents not only a wise addition to your investment portfolio but also a delightful place to call home.
