Refined and contemporary, this two-bedroom unit, constructed less than 5 years ago, epitomizes modern living. Thoughtfully designed, it boasts a spacious open-plan layout, highlighted by expansive glass sliding doors leading to a front deck that invites you to soak in the picturesque rural vistas. The generously proportioned kitchen, bathed in natural light, features ample bench space and storage, catering to culinary enthusiasts. Both bedrooms offer substantial wardrobe storage, while a cleverly crafted dual-access modern bathroom serves as an ensuite to the master bedroom, enhancing convenience. Further enhancing its appeal, the property includes an additional toilet conveniently located within the separate laundry. Outside, parking is hassle-free with space for three vehicles, one which is undercover. The landscaped surroundings require minimal upkeep, providing outdoor entertaining or relaxation areas without the need for a lawn mower. Positioned in a popular sought after area of St Helens, the yard is fully fenced and pathed, it offers easy access to the town centre and all essential amenities, ensuring both comfort and convenience.
