This delightful, 2 bedroom unit is a great find, delivering the perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Surrounded by nature, you'll enjoy the tranquility of suburban living while remaining close to the city's bustling heart. Whether you're heading to the city center or exploring the beautiful Tasmanian wilderness, you're perfectly positioned to do so. This charming unit is bathed in warm sunlight and offers a serene escape from the bustling city while keeping all amenities at your fingertips. The main bedroom is a good size and has built in cupboards. The second bedroom offers versatility as an office, guest room, or creative space and also features built in cupboards. The open plan living kitchen living area is bathed in natural light and the private deck has Jarrah hardwood benches and is the perfect suntrap for lazy Sunday brunches or afternoon tea, a lovely, serene space to unwind, entertain or simply soak up the sun. There is a large garage under the house where the laundry is situated which has plenty of space for your car and storage. The location is simply unbeatable. Lenah Valley offers a vibrant community with a plethora of cafes, restaurants, and shops just a drive away. Parks and green spaces are scattered throughout the area, perfect for picnics and leisurely strolls. Ideal for your new home or to add to your investment portfolio, please call today to arrange a private viewing.
