On a prized north-easterly corner, this elevated ground floor apartment's immaculate presentation is made even more appealing by its generous proportions, beautifully bright natural light, and leafy open outlooks just a short stroll from Harp Village. Expansive windows and elevated ceilings enhance the superb sense of space in an elegant living domain with undercover north facing balcony, large main bedroom featuring extensive built-in robes, a spacious second bedroom and an excellent fully equipped kitchen offering abundant storage and bench space, and room for meals. A full-size bathroom with bath, independent shower, laundry facilities and separate WC, panel heating, intercom entry and secure undercover parking complete an ideal Kew entry or low maintenance lifestyle asset in a quiet yet convenient position just a short stroll from Harp Village cafes and dining, Kew East and St Anne's Primary, Hays Paddock, and High Street trams. Enjoy easy access to Kew Junction shopping and dining, and the Eastern Freeway.
