Downsize, invest or start your real estate journey with this fully renovated brick home in Wangaratta's West End. Ready for inspection now after a long and thorough renovation, this low-maintenance brick home has the charm of high ceilings, polished timber floorboards, large windows for maximum light, and a fully renovated bathroom and kitchen. With new carpet, fresh paintwork, ducted split system heating/cooling, plus a slow combustion wood heater for winter, there's little more to do except pick the curtains or blinds of your choice and arrange the furniture. Other features include a large lounge with adjoining dining room, new kitchen, built-in robes, carport at the rear, and a very private front verandah and yard with established garden. Close to schools and neighbourhood shops. A very comfortable home – call it yours, or invest with confidence.
