Enjoying a prime position in the highly sought-after 'Beau Dejoir' security building, this double brick apartment commands a coveted Mosman village address. Tightly held for over 50 years by the same family, the apartment showcases sophisticated full renovations, appealing to an array of buyers including investors, executive couples, downsizers and first homebuyers seeking a wonderful home in a coveted walk-to-everywhere location. The elegant interiors reveal an open plan living and dining room enhanced by high ceilings and ornate cornices, opening onto a sunlit covered balcony framed by tranquil treetop vistas. Back inside, the chic stone kitchen is filled with natural light and boasts ample bench and storage space, whilst the airy queen sized bedrooms enjoy built-in wardrobes. The home is brimming with premium quality finishes and thoughtful design features, including a rainshower bathroom with freestanding bath, dedicated internal laundry, plantation shutters and a car space plus allocated storage. The property is set a stroll from village shops, cafés, restaurants and city buses and within walking distance of Balmoral Beach and Taronga Zoo.
