Surrounded by schools, sports grounds, markets and shopping centres, this charming freestanding near new home is one of the three contemporary double storey townhouses. The interior design is bright and sleek, the kitchen and living room are mainly east facing to ensure that your home is bathed in natural light throughout the day. North-East facing backyard brings you not just sunshine, also the private oasis out of the busy life. Two master bedrooms with ensuite spreading downstairs and upstairs provide you and the family much more space and convenient living style. All bedrooms are either facilitated with a fitted walk-in-robe or a wide built-in-robe. Premium Inclusions: Kitchen with European appliances, bedrooms all finished with wool blend carpet, kitchen and living areas completed with hard-wood timber flooring. Beautiful timber stairs and main door indicate the quality of the home, not forgetting the fully ducted split heating and cooling system throughout. Ample storage and extra guest powder room will be the "plus" you won't ignore during inspection. Moving into this well-laid-out home you'll see why it is referred to as the convenient location of Mitcham.
