Private sanctuary with character appeal and the convenience of Heatherdale station just a short stroll away, this charm filled two bedroom home is a must to inspect. Fabulous and freestanding, this lovely home is nestled behind a high fence and offers superb outdoor living and entertaining with an undercover decked area and private yard to enjoy. Providing comfort year-round, the inviting living room is appointed with split system heater/air conditioner and plush carpeting and along with spacious master bedroom, is topped by high ceilings with impressive art deco ceiling panels. Sunny and large with abundant storage, the kitchen offers space for a table and extends via sliding door to a paved yard. Both sizable bedrooms, the master bedroom particularly so, are well appointed with built in robes and share a good size bathroom/laundry. Further comforts include single carport at the rear. Perfectly positioned in a location much admired for its leafy streets, parkland and easy convenience with Eastland Shopping Centre and Ringwood Square close by, excellent child care and schools including Rangeview Pre-school, Antonia Park Primary, Ringwood Heights Primary and Rangeview Primary and great access to trains, buses and Eastlink.
