Located just a stone's throw from the Derwent River's edge, this three bedroom villa captures views across the water to Sandy Bay and the city. The home's spacious open plan kitchen, dining and lounge design makes the most of the space provided with the added comfort of a Daikin heat pump/air conditioner. This home comprises of three bedrooms and two bathrooms with the main having the ensuite as well as a walk-in robe and plenty of storage throughout. There is a low maintenance outdoor which has plenty of room to soak in the late afternoon sunshine. A single garage with internal access and remote entry at the rear of the property ensures that your vehicle is kept off the street and the added bonus of off-street parking for 2 cars.
