Step into this charming residence that offers tranquil living with the benefits of city life. Nestled at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac, this home is your haven while keeping you well-connected to urban excitement. This front unit shares the block with just one other property and doesn't burden you with owner's corporation fees. As you enter, you'll find a spacious carpeted living area that sets the stage for cozy evenings. The L-shaped living/dining room layout seamlessly blends the dining and kitchen spaces, making mealtime unforgettable. The kitchen also boasts a practical layout with its own informal meals area. This property offers two carpeted bedrooms with ample storage. Both bedrooms are not only generously sized but also come with a built-in robes and plenty of natural light. A dedicated laundry room keeps household chores separate from your living area and provides direct access to the backyard. Plus, a Braemar heating unit in the formal living area ensures warmth during colder months. This home is truly a gem, combining private living with urban convenience. Its idyllic location next to Roy Court Reserve brings nature to your doorstep. For shopping and amenities, Parkmore Shopping Centre is just minutes away, and Dandenong Plaza is easily accessible. A secure lock-up garage is the final touch on this suburban perfection. Education is also within reach, with several schools nearby, including Chandler Park Primary School and Keysborough Secondary College.
