Situated just a short walk from Edithvale beach, the train station, shops and the local primary school is this character 3 bedroom home. This light-filled home is in a superb location and features polished floorboards, as well as ducted heating and cooling throughout. The functional living space includes a separate lounge, updated kitchen with stainless steel appliances (including dishwasher) and breakfast bar. A second living zone with separate powder room and laundry leads to the private courtyard garden and double carport. There is a newly renovated central bathroom and three good sized bedrooms - all with modern built-in robes. The sun-drenched private front garden offers space to unwind and relax.
