An idyllic hideaway with charming cottage features. This converted storefront is gorgeous and widely appealing with its timber features and split level open design, offering off street parking. Flush with timber floors throughout the generously light filled living space and up step to the meals area and tasteful kitchen featuring a SS gas cooktop, oven and walk-in pantry as well as a neighbouring cosy fireplaces and split level unit. A second living is delightful and the paved courtyard is inviting and luscious with much greenery. The shower room/laundry is neat and tidy and there is a separate toilet. Additional features include numerous fireplaces and split system units, verandah, skylights, pendant lighting, ceiling fans and parking out the front of the property or to the side. With buses out front and close to Ferny Creek Reserve, Sherbrooke Community School, Tennis Club, Recreational Hall, much bushland and walking trails, local shopping, cafes and picnic grounds. Please note: The initial rental agreement for this property will be a 15 month term as this is our Office's new standard lease term for all new agreements unless otherwise negotiated.
