This immaculate one-bedroom, fully renovated and fully furnished apartment is perfectly located with the delights of Camberwell Junction on the doorstep. You only need to unpack your bags. In a boutique solid brick block, it's private, leafy and tranquil. A tram stop to the city out the front makes this an ideal choice for discerning commuters. It features a light and bright open-plan living area with a dining zone flowing through to a near new kitchen with stainless steel appliances, plentiful storage and a tiled splashback. The renovated bathroom is fully tiled, vanity and shower plus split system heating and cooling, carport on title and communal laundry with own washing machine included. The bedroom sports built-in robe with ample storage. Stroll down to the junction to take advantage of the many delights of this coveted area, including the Rivoli Cinema, Sunday markets, food market, cafes, restaurants, shops and services. Fritsch Holzer Park, Swinburne University, Auburn Village, Glenferrie Road shops and Citylink are all in easy reach.
