Sunny and refreshed this well-located duplex is a rare opportunity as a family entry point into a blue-ribbon suburb, for astute investors looking to add to their portfolio or for downsizers already familiar with the many benefits of Castle Hill living. 'Walk to everything' with no car required, this north to rear residence is only minutes' walk to Castle Hill Metro Station (500m), quality schools (900m to Castle Hill Public) and the surrounding Castle Towers shopping (700m) and dining precinct. Nestled quietly from the street with house-like proportions, a lock up garage and a private grassed yard, a comfortable, easy Castle Hill life begins here. The practical floor plan, with stylish lounge and separate dining claims updated flooring and fresh paint. Drenched in natural light this well-maintained property is ready to welcome new owners who will appreciate the low maintenance and convenient existence on offer with ample room to relax, host friends and raise a family. With an emphasis on day-to-day comfort there are three generous bedrooms. For the new owners of the property, the large master bedroom enjoys a leafy outlook and excellent storage. All bedrooms are served by an over-sized and tidy bathroom. A well-located, kitchen with district views and updated appliance suite, downstairs guest powder room, internal laundry and 2 vehicle garage complete this fabulous home. Celebrating the light and bright aspect the new owners will year-round enjoy the outdoors area including a fully fenced (secure for children or pets) manicured lawn and an attractive, easy-to-maintain garden. Ultimately private, this updated home promises a lifestyle of low-maintenance comfort in a sought-after location. At easy walking distance to the metro station and city transport, local amenities and quality schools this is a rare opportunity that lends itself to families, retirees or investors alike.
