Walk To Train Stations And Shops

Who needs a car when you can stroll to cafes, the train station and the popular Greek foodie hub at Eaton Mall - famed for having Melbourne's best souvlakis and European cakes. As your first foot on the property ladder, this value-packed unit gives you a well-serviced location, a single level layout, and scope to renovate in the south-eastern foodie hub between Galbally Reserve and Murrumbeena Park. The home presents with beautiful natural light inside, and plenty of fenced garden behind a secure brick wall. First home buyers and downsizers will appreciate the low maintenance freedom of a 2-bedroom unit, with an extra bedroom for guests. A dining room, full laundry and great pantry space in the kitchen add to the house-style benefits at number 1, putting you close to transport, parks, eateries, village shopping at Carnegie and Oakleigh, designer shopping at Chadstone the Fashion Capital, just a 20min drive to bayside beaches.
