This two-bedroom townhouse presents an excellent opportunity for savvy buyers aiming to enter the real estate market affordably. Situated just approximately 600 metres from Woolworths Shopping centre and 200 meters from the Tura Beach Country Club, it offers convenience and potential for recreation. Thoughtfully designed for both comfort and functionality. Level entry and open-plan living contribute to a seamless flow throughout the space, while the large kitchen and bathroom add further appeal. The inclusion of two spacious bedrooms with robes, a separate toilet, offers versatility and convenience. The presence of reverse cycle air conditioners ensures climate control year-round. Additionally, ample under-house storage is a practical feature, allowing for organization and tidiness. The large private rear garden and courtyard, backing onto a native reserve, provide a serene outdoor retreat and offer opportunities for relaxation and enjoyment of nature. With its low-maintenance design this townhouse is a compelling option for anyone seeking an affordable yet comfortable home.
