This apartment boasts a sensational location being directly opposite Cabarita Beach and in the heart of the local shopping precinct. With the patrolled beach & Cabarita Beach Hotel right across the road, you can park your car and forget it! This one's in the heart of town. Recently renovated nothing more to spend, the apartment boasts a near new kitchen with quality appliances, a fully refitted bathroom with a separate powder room. Newly laid flooring coverings throughout including easy-care hybrid plank flooring to living areas. All curtains and blinds have been replaced and split system air conditioning has been installed to the living area and bedrooms. And to finish off, newly installed high quality security screens to the sliding doors and bedroom windows. There is a private outdoor courtyard off the living area for relaxing and entertaining. A single lock-up garage is included in the basement carpark. Currently vacant and ready to move in before Christmas. Upstairs there is a massive rooftop outdoor entertaining area, home to an inground pool with ocean views.
