The tranquil atmosphere of this bright and stylish townhouse is elevated by lush leafy views at the front and rear of its fresh two-level design. Peaceful, private, and exceptionally well-located, the home boasts a practical modern vibe that executives, young families and investors will appreciate. Its generous upstairs bedrooms are particularly appealing, and its sun-filled courtyard has direct access to common gardens. Perfectly located in a tree lined street, it is part of a unique low-rise complex with street frontage and secure parking. Within a stroll you'll find King Street's bohemian cafes, restaurants, and shops, as well as St Peters Station and the leafy grounds of Sydney Park.
