Ready to shine as the star of this collection of residences, this newly renovated home radiates style and freshness from every angle. With its crisp neutral colour palette and warm timber accents, including sleek refurbished timber floors, this prized turn-key home promises a life of modern flair and functionality in one desirable package. With an elevated position, the north-facing living room is permeated with natural light, seamlessly flowing into the dining area and kitchen, creating an inviting ambience for gatherings and everyday living. Outside, the wrap-around garden is a harmonious balance of sunshine and shade, with plenty of privacy and secure access, making it an ideal space for alfresco entertaining, and for pets and children to play. The generously sized main bedroom offers ample storage with built-in robes, while the guest bedroom is equally comfortable. Practicality meets convenience with a well-appointed bathroom, separate WC, and a full-size laundry, ensuring every need is met with ease. Embrace comfort year-round with split system heating/cooling and the convenience of a carport at your door. Plus, residing in the coveted Frankston High School zone adds an extra layer of appeal for families seeking esteemed education opportunities. Further, take a short stroll to Jubilee Park and enjoy excellent proximity to Monash University, shopping centres, restaurants, entertainment venues, Frankston Station, and the beach.
