Welcome to 1/32 Devonshire Street, Croydon - a residence thoughtfully designed to accommodate the needs of the entire family, perfectly situated for convenience and comfort. What truly sets this property apart is not only its external amenities and proximity to local shops and cafes but also its remarkable internal spaciousness. Discover the features that make this property extraordinary. An oversized, sun-drenched combined living and dining area seamlessly invites relaxation and entertainment, offering ample space for gatherings and daily activities alike. The fully equipped kitchen, complete with gas cooking and abundant storage space, caters to culinary enthusiasts and ensures effortless meal preparation. Two generously sized bedrooms, freshly painted for a modern touch, provide peaceful retreats for rest and rejuvenation. An additional office/study at the entrance enhances functionality and convenience, ideal for remote work or creative pursuits. The well-appointed bathroom features a shower-bath, storage options, and ample space, catering to both practical needs and comfort. Internal laundry facilities and a designated parking space further enhance the convenience of everyday living, while front and back porch areas offer inviting spaces for outdoor relaxation and leisure. Conveniently located just a short stroll from Croydon Station and the vibrant amenities of The Strand, this residence presents an unparalleled opportunity to embrace Inner West living at its finest. Additionally, it's a mere 3-minute drive to the Ashfield Aquatic Centre and Burwood, ensuring easy access to recreational facilities and further amenities. This presents a fantastic opportunity in the heart of the Inner West. For further details or to inquire about upcoming inspections, please don't hesitate to reach out to Connor.
