This well maintained and nicely presented courtyard home has been thoughtfully updated whilst maintaining its original 1970's charm and highly sought retro characteristics. Built in 1975, this delightful home will appeal to those looking to enter the market as a perfect first home, downsizer opportunity or addition to a blue-chip property portfolio. Upon arrival, you are greeted by the manicured gardens, established rose bushes and lush greenery plus front veranda leading to the formal entry way. This home is bursting with eclectic retro appeal with original woodwork, patterned wallpaper, rattan style pendant lighting and soft orange and beige tones throughout, all while gracefully incorporating a modern facelift to the newly renovated bathroom with full bath, separate shower plus convenience of separate toilet and laundry. There are two well-presented bedrooms, the main is of generous size and both bedrooms feature built in wardrobes. There is heating and cooling for year round comfort. Open plan lounge and dining area, the kitchen has retained its original features with loads of natural light and is equipped with a brand-new electric stove and a servery to the living area. There is sliding door access to the shaded pergola area and private rear gardens. Carport with auto roller door and additional storeroom. Situated on a quiet street, within close proximity to Southgate Plaza shopping centre, a variety of local eateries and handy to schools, public transportation and local reserves & parks.
