Sold by Annabelle Feng & Ted Jao of RT Edgar Boroondara Bathed in light and leafy views in an elevated street-facing position, this stylish town residence delivers today's best finishes amid spacious, house-like proportions. Gleaming with chic bamboo floorboards and sparkling stone surfaces, the home is an uplifting setting for day-to-day living and entertaining. A vast lounge and dining room provides a bright and roomy ambience for everyday relaxation and home-based work, while easily mingling family and friends for lively celebrations. The adjoining kitchen is smartly outfitted in stone benches and glass splashbacks, offering a full appointment of five appliances including a wide gas cooktop, complemented by substantial gloss cabinetry. Outside, the tiered gardens offer plenty of space for boisterous kids' play, while tempting vibrant indoor-outdoor entertaining in a low-maintenance setting. The accommodation pairs three ever-generous robed bedrooms with two contemporary bathrooms, including a fully tiled ensuite and a walk-in robe to the master bedroom. Finished with a spacious laundry and ample storage including under-house access and a single garage, the home provides the comfort of split system air-conditioning, and high-speed HFC NBN access. Positioned within an easy stroll of local eateries and transport, Doncaster Library, Westfield's endless retailers, and Doncaster Primary and Secondary schools, the home balances suburban sanctuary and convenience, while offering an easy CBD commute via the nearby Eastern freeway.
