Gleaming polished timber floors and a recent revamp define this stylish and contemporary, easy-care unit in a fabulous location where you can indulge in easy access to station, buses, parklands, the Dandenong Creek Trail and a host of other amenities. Ready for you to move in and relax, the cosy living and dining spaces are bright and open plan with seamless connection to a contemporary kitchen with stainless-steel appliances and chic glass splashback. If you don't feel like cooking it's a leisurely stroll to Vinny's Pizza or jump in the car and be at The Bayswater Hotel in under 5-minutes along with a choice of Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, Malaysian, or Italian eateries. There are two robed bedrooms with plush carpet that share a sparkling bathroom with shared laundry facilities quietly tucked off a small hallway. The backyard requires very little maintenance and has a large deck for alfresco dining and entertainment as well as a grassy section that wraps around the property delivering space to grow some veggies or enjoy downtime in the sunshine. The unit also has split-system conditioning and ceiling fans for seasonal comfort, security shutters and a parking spot opposite the residence. Nestled close to everything that Bayswater and Knox have to offer including an array of schools, parklands, shopping precincts and eateries, the home offers a magnificent and ultra-convenient lifestyle opportunity.
