This tidy and fresh duplex is located in the popular suburb of Belgian Gardens and is awaiting new loving tenants. Being only minutes' walk to Pallerander Beach, Jezzine Barracks and The Strand plus only minutes' drive to close by Take away eateries, Doctors, Post Office and other amenities, this location is great. This unit presents a good sized living area which adjoins from the functional kitchen which features plenty of cupboard and bench space and electric cookware, through to the main lounge and dining. This space then effortlessly flows out through the double screen doors onto the back patio making for the perfect entertaining space. There are security screens throughout this home breezy and cool all year round. There are 2 bedroom both with built in cupboards and both present split system air conditioning. The main bathroom features a shower over bath and classic modern vanity with gorgeous skylight. There is a large back deck off the rear of the unit and which is perfect for entertaining or simply taking in the days as they come. The laundry is located under the unit plus there is plenty of storage space. There is no undercover car port although there is a concreted driveway which is secured by front gates.
