This charming two bedroom townhouse in the heart of Colac offers the perfect blend of practicality and convenience. The large north-facing living room is bright and airy, with large windows that flood the space with natural light, making it an ideal spot to unwind after a long day. The U-shaped kitchen, adjacent to the dining room, is well-equipped with electric appliances and ample cupboard space. Both bedrooms feature built-in robes and large windows. The property includes a one-bay garage, with gardening and water included in the rent. Situated in a prime location in a friendly neighbourhood, you're just steps away from the CBD ensuring easy access to all local amenities.
