Located in Sandy Bay this cottage has charming street appeal and classic original features throughout. Set across one level, the home has a flexible floorplan and is surrounded by gorgeous gardens and is within easy walking distance of local amenities, including great cafes, including Jackman & Mc Ross bakery, as well as the beach and great schools. Open plan living at the rear is spacious and comprises the kitchen, family/dining room. French doors open onto the back courtyard garden to create seamless indoor/outdoor living. The living room is adjacent, and three bedrooms are serviced by the central family bathroom with bathtub and shower. The second bathroom with laundry facilities and separate WC complete the accommodation. Gas hot water, two reverse cycle air conditioning units and electric wall heaters ensure convenience and year-round comfort.
