Superb design makes every aspect of this four-bedroom residence exceptional, from its Hampton Hill location to big bay views and a convenient location around the corner from shops, cafes and public transport. Designed with living zones and bedrooms on each level, you can see the bay and sunsets from the well-appointed upstairs lounge, lie in bed or sit on the upstairs terrace and watch yachts sailing by, and enjoy the indoor-outdoor flow from the lounge and dining room to the courtyard garden. Every room is impeccably presented and feature-rich. It's perfect for busy families wanting a central address minutes from schools and an easy walk to the beach and parks. Natural light streams into the double-height entry foyer, living zone and Blanco kitchen, there's a ground-floor bedroom/home office with an open fireplace, two bedrooms with built-in desks and shelving, and a double garage for secure parking. Take the time to admire this streetfront home loved for its many features, including inviting outdoor spaces with low-maintenance greenery, a built-in barbecue and fishpond. A prized retreat in the heart of Hampton, ready to move in and appreciate the timeless architecture and excellent privacy.
