This stunning 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom first floor apartment in a highly sought-after location, offers a luxurious and convenient lifestyle. Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious and well-lit living area that exudes a modern and stylish charm. Italian Travertine floor tiles throughout the living areas give a luxurious feel and the open-plan layout creates a homely atmosphere, perfect for relaxation or entertaining guests. The property boasts a large and fully equipped chefs kitchen with high-end appliances, ideal for preparing gourmet meals, and where you will enjoy entertaining while taking in the views of the bay. A four-person breakfast bar, at the front of the property, is perfect for people watching and enjoying the ever-changing Esplanade. The bedrooms are bright and airy, providing a comfortable retreat at the end of the day, main bedroom with air conditioning and loads of storage. The second bedroom has it's own ensuite, study nook and a pull-down Murphy- wall bed giving this room the flexibility to be whatever you choose. The main bathroom has floor to ceiling travertine tiles, shower, and luxurious bath, perfect for relaxing after a long day. With secure parking for one car, you can enjoy the convenience of waterfront living without the hassle of searching for parking. The building is well-maintained and secure and offers a sense of sophistication that sets it apart from the rest. Whether it's the Jan Power fresh food markets, local quality restaurants such as Manly Boathouse, The Arsonist or entertainment venues like Manly Harbour Boat Club, RQYS, or the trendy cafes and boutiques of Cambridge Parade, these are all within easy walking distance. Wake up to amazing sunrises across the bay, long walks on the waterfront, yoga in the park, Sunday markets, this location offers a year-round holiday lifestyle. No need to drive, Manly Harbour Village with all its conveniences such as public transport bus and rail, post office, schools, pre schools and 7-day groceries are a short stroll away.
