

1/46 Blessington Street, St Kilda, Vic 3182

Sold Apartment

Monday, 23 October 2023

1/46 Blessington Street, St Kilda, Vic 3182

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Type: Apartment

John Manning
0416101201

Will Johnson
0449131648

Contact agent

Nestled in a boutique Art Deco block, this captivating apartment offers a serene sanctuary directly across from the lush greenery of St Kilda Botanical Gardens. Here, timeless elegance meets modern comfort, providing a tranquil escape from everyday life. As you step inside, high decorative ceilings immediately give the interior a spacious feel. The front living room, highlighted by a glowing fireplace, opens onto a balcony with views of the manicured front courtyard. The landscaping surrounding the block adds an extra layer of serenity to the setting. Towards the rear, a dining room sits adjacent to a fully equipped kitchen, complemented by white cabinets set strikingly against black benchtops. Two bedrooms – the main featuring built-in robes and an air conditioner, are serviced by a sleek, modern bathroom with fashionable fixtures and finishes. Added conveniences include a laundry, and a communal courtyard with built-in seating to relax in the sun or chat with neighbours and friends. Within walking distance of some of St Kilda's best attractions, living here means that you can enjoy a lifestyle that's as vibrant or relaxed as you wish it to be. Whether it's a day spent at renowned St Kilda Beach, dining out and shopping in buzzing Acland Street, or an evening out at the historic Palais Theater, you're spoilt for choice. Public transport, including trams and buses, is easily accessible, making commuting to other parts of the city a breeze.