A beautifully renovated home situated in a central location that combines contemporary and convenient living. Filled with an abundance of natural light and completed with timeless finishes, this home is an ideal opportunity for first home buyers, young families and investors alike. The functional layout showcases two sizeable, robed bedrooms serviced by the light and bright central bathroom. The open plan living and dining area is completed by the contemporary, L-shaped kitchen offering s/s appliances and stone benchtops. Additionally, the home is equipped with a European laundry, low-maintenance yard, secured carport space, street frontage with a lovely, well-maintained front yard and split system heating/ cooling. Location couldn't be more ideal, with major amenities just a short distance away including High St shops, Station St/ May Rd shops, Thomastown train station, reputable primary and secondary schools, parklands and just a short drive to nearby freeway access and major shopping centers. A home sure to impress upon inspection. Get in touch today!
