This apartment stands out with its generous size, offering more space than typically found in your average 1-bed unit. A perfect starting point for first homebuyers or a solid choice for savvy investors, it balances comfort and convenience in a boutique block. The interior radiates tranquillity, bathed in natural light that floods through an expansive window wall. The living and dining room is thoughtfully designed, featuring bespoke shelving for ample storage and display, as well as a dedicated meals area. Step onto the balcony and you're greeted by calming greenery, offering a serene space to unwind. In the kitchen, you'll find everything you need, including a stainless-steel oven, gas cooktop, and dishwasher, ensuring meal prep is effortless. The bedroom is fitted with built-in robes, and the modern bathroom showcases a shower-over-bath, curved sink bowl on top of the vanity, laundry facilities, and mosaic tiles adding an artistic finish. The location delivers a wealth of lifestyle options moments from your doorstep. Nearby High Street, with its trendy boutiques, cafes, and eateries, delivers a lively and sophisticated atmosphere. Just a stroll away is Beatty Avenue Village, offering a quaint and vibrant community vibe. The close proximity to key transport links, including Toorak and Armadale Stations and trams, makes commuting a breeze. Additionally, nearby Orrong Romanis Reserve provides a green oasis for relaxation and outdoor activities. Living here means enjoying the best of urban life with the luxury of tranquil suburban comforts in one of Melbourne's most desirable neighbourhoods.
