After recent renovations, this 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom property is in wonderful condition. The interior has clean finishes, is refreshing, modern and tastefully decorated, with a neutral color scheme that will suit any style. To the front of the home is a cozy and comfortable living room drenched in natural light. An open plan design leads you to a cleverly appointed kitchen, with plenty of bench space and storage. The unit is situated on a 412m² (approx.) allotment, with no easement or owners corporation, giving you complete control over your own space. Outside, a single carport can also be used as an entertaining area, making it an ideal space for hosting friends and family. Sitting adjacent to the carport is a single garage, with the great addition of a workshop to the rear, providing plenty of space for all your tools and equipment. There's also a small garden shed, perfect for storing your gardening supplies. The residence is in a great location, directly opposite the Traralgon West Sports Complex, providing both beautiful views and plenty of space for exercise. Additional features include:- Two bedrooms both with built in robes- Single carport with option to transform into entertaining area- Single garage with a workshop to the rear- Small garden shed- 412m² (approx.) allotment
