Ideally located within walking distance to the best of vibrant Ballarat, with cafes, restaurants, bars, and retail options on your doorstep, plus public transport, schools, parks and playgrounds available nearby, this home offers an ultra-convenient, inner-city lifestyle at an affordable price. This brick, modern, low maintenance townhouse is comprised of three bedrooms, the master featuring a WIR and ensuite, plus two additional bedrooms with BIRs. There are two separate spacious light filled living zones and a paved alfresco area, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining in the low maintenance courtyard. The stylish kitchen enjoys stone benchtops, a dishwasher and stainless-steel appliances, while the spacious family bathroom boasts a bath and separate toilet. A DLUG with direct access via the laundry and remote roller door completes the practical floorplan. More like a house than a townhouse, this affordable home in a central, convenient location represents exceptional value as an ideal first home, downsizing option, set and forget investment or short-stay rental property.
