Big, bright & brilliantly situated, you'll love the convenient lifestyle location & house like proportions of this classic, solid 70's ground floor apartment in a boutique block of just five. Perfect for first-home buyers wanting to tap into the market, downsizers looking for single level ease or investors seeking high rent returns, this great find situated in the heart of Caulfield North, presents the opportunity to move in as is or further flexibility to renovate, enhance & create the luxurious contemporary abode you've always dreamed of (STCA). A wide entrance hall greets you on entry & accesses a large main bedroom with walkway of built in robes & sparkling ensuite, a second bedroom with built in robes & a central bathroom with shower, bath & separate toilet. While a wonderfully expansive living & adjoining dining room with balcony terrace offering a lovely leafy outlook connects to a functional & spacious well-equipped kitchen (including dishwasher) with an abundance of storage & bench space overlooking a casual meals area space. Other features include ducted heating, hallway storage, separate laundry, under cover off street parking for one car, secure intercom entry & a storeroom. Ideally located within easy walking distance to the magnificent Caulfield Park, vibrant Carlisle Street's shops, restaurants & cafes & a choice of transport options - this apartment ticks all the boxes.
