Completely revamped, this easily maintained home offers an idyllic, worry-free lifestyle. With its independent nature, street frontage, and landscaped private garden, this residence is not merely a home; it presents an unparalleled opportunity for first-time homebuyers, downsizers, or savvy investors looking to secure a piece of this highly sought-after locale. Step inside to discover a wealth of living space bathed in natural light. The home features three comfortably spacious bedrooms, a generously sized and light-filled lounge, a brand-new kitchen seamlessly connecting to a charming meals area, a fully renovated centrally located bathroom, and the added convenience of a secure remote lock-up garage. Enjoy year-round comfort with the benefit of a reverse cycle air conditioning system. Enhancing your lifestyle further, relish the delightful pergola and easy access to Ballarat Road and the western ring road. Local primary and high schools are conveniently close, making it an excellent choice for families. Consider an inspection not just a recommendation but an essential step toward realizing the life you've been dreaming of.
