Impressive and spacious, this elevated ground floor two bedroom apartment resides in a renowned Armadale address revered for its leafy streetscape and central location just off High Street and close to trams, Armadale station, cafes and local parkland. Flaunting a generous house-like layout that emphasises space and contemporary design, the light filled interiors are peaceful, airy and bright. A western aspect ensures brilliant natural light floods the palatial open plan living and dining domain where you can host guests in style, relax on the balcony or simply soak up the sun and views casting out over the leafy streetscape and period houses through the floor-to-ceiling windows. A separate kitchen is bathed in natural light and well appointed with plentiful bench and cupboard space, Blanco stainless steel oven, gas cooktop and north facing meals area. Each of the two large bedrooms integrate built-in robes including the extra-large main bedroom with leafy outlooks, while the modern fully-tiled bathroom includes a bath and separate toilet. Adding to the excellence is an undercover car space with store room, a spacious laundry and split system heating and air conditioning. Live large and love life in a key location on the edge of High Street's retail stores and within easy reach of city transport.
