Featuring an indoor-outdoor design and hitting the market at an opportune time, this contemporary residence stands as a sought-after acquisition. Ideally situated in the Manchester Primary and Mooroolbark College zone with easy access to Silcock Reserve, Croydon Station, and Chirnside Homemaker Centre, this stylish home boasts a prime location. Making an immediate impact, the property welcomes with a charming side drive leading to a double garage, additional OSP, and mature privacy trees, seamlessly blending with its environment. Expansive windows invite abundant natural light, while an inviting portico entry beckons exploration of the interior. Inside, a family-friendly layout awaits, characterized by an open plan design. The sunlit lounge, equipped with split system heating/cooling, flows effortlessly into the dining area, accentuated by polished floorboards. The gourmet kitchen serves as the heart of the home, featuring peninsula seating, stainless steel appliances, and ample pantry space. Transitioning to the outdoors, a generous deck, manageable garden, and charming cubby house for the kids complete the picture, offering enviable family living. Functionality remains paramount, showcased by the ground floor ensuite main bedroom and spacious laundry with guest WC. Upstairs, family bedrooms, a main bathroom with a soaker tub, a generous retreat, and a study nook provide further versatility, maximizing the use of space. With additional off-street parking for a trailer and caravan, this property epitomizes a premium lifestyle, blending form and function seamlessly. A must-see for discerning buyers, prompt inspection is advised.
